I have never played on GG Poker, because they dont operate, where I live (Sweden). But I think, its overall still not as professional and complete a site as PokerStars. As you say, there are no SnGs, and even if this game format is less popular, than it used to be, thats kind of a big omission.

I also think, the terms and conditions of GG Poker are kind of bullshit. They allow themselves to kick out people basically at their own discretion, if for instance they deem them to do too much "bum hunting" in cash games. And in the past there have been stories about people getting kicked out or warned for having their tracker open while playing on GG, even though the HUD dont work there, which makes absolutely no sense either. They have also recently hired Dan Bilzerian as ambassador, which to me is not someone, a serious company should associate themselves with.

So while GG Poker has been able to grow a lot, and it was a huge scoop for them to host the online WSOP in 2024 due to the pandemic, to me PokerStars is still the clear industry leader. I dont like everything, PokerStars have done over the years by increasing rake and cutting rewards, but they still have great software and great game selection. And if I was to choose any online poker site, where I had to have a large sum of money sitting, it would certainly be Stars.
