The J Tg E (Jogo) or Numu languages form a branch of the Western Mande languages. They are spoken in the Volta region of Ghana, Burkina Faso, and Mali. The J Tg E languages are characterized by a complex system of tonal inflection and a rich vocabulary of terms related to gambling and chance. The J Tg E languages are also known for their unique system of numerals and their use of metaphors to describe the unpredictable nature of gambling. The J Tg E languages are a fascinating example of the diversity of human language and the cultural practices that surround it.
