First, for anybody unfamiliar with the concept of second-half (2H) betting, it is Whenever a game goes into halftime, oddsmakers will post lines for the second half the game. This solely reflects the points scored in the second half, not the final score. NFL Second-Half Betting: Look team to win. "OT stands for "overtime," and HT dals for "half-time." When placing a bet on basketball, you can relate to these terms considering which team you think will win at the end of the game (H1 or H2),... What the meaning of H1, H 2, OOT, and H3, e HT?
